BOSTON, Mass., Oct. 12.—The Brooklyn Ship of State sailed into the Boston Harbor this afternoon wrecked, with four big holes in her side. Another ship reached America exactly 424 years ago today, and Boston is celebrating the arrival of Columbus this afternoon. The Boston fans are also celebrating the wrecking of the Brooklyn ship on a rock-bound shore.

For the fourth time in the history of the game the Boston Americans are World Champions. They defeated the Brooklyn team this afternoon by a score of 4 to 1, giving Boston four victories out of five. Boston has now won more world championships than any other American League team.

Shore is the Hero

It was the work of a tall youth from South Carolina who was responsible for the swan-song of the Robins in Boston town today. This tall youth, who extends up into the ethereal waves a distance of 6 feet 5 1/2 inches, toyed with the Brooklyn batters this afternoon. Throughout the nine innings he was using his fast ball, which had a noticeable break to it, and only three singles were made off his delivery. These singles were as scattered as icebergs in the middle of the Atlantic, and Brooklyn never had a chance from the time that the umpire handed Shore a new ball and Harry Myers, another Southerner, walked out to the plate before more than 40,000 fans seated in Braves' field. Shore was as cool as the proverbial cucumber and when Cady let a ball go by him which meant a run, and Scott booted the ball, the tall youth from East Bend did not weaken.

Brooklyn lost because it could not hit the tall hurler. Pfeffer pitched a great game as world's series games go, but the Dodgers did not have a chance with the ball coming down at them from such a height and curved in every possible direction. Jake Daubert and Zack Wheat, who have hampered the National League pitchers for an average of more than 300, were as babes before the towering heave of the home team.

In four times to bat Daubert did not once hit the ball out of the infield, while Shore fanned Wheat on two occasions. The Boston pitcher deserved a shutout. It was one of his shots that got away from Cady which gave Brooklyn the solitary run, without a hit being made in that inning.

Stengel, Mowrey and Meyers were the only Brooklyn batters to hit safely, and the trio of bingles did not figure in run making. Big Ed Pfeffer pitched good ball, but his hurling was of no avail. Boston hit when runs were needed, and the six hits off the big pitcher gave the home folks four runs, which was more than enough to win.

Both shortstops played far below their standard this afternoon. Everett Scott made his first error of the series when he threw Stengel's grounder away. Olson's two slips in the third inning were responsible for one of the two runs made. Larry Gardner was in his element. The Brooklyn batters kept hitting drives down toward the difficult corner, and the Vermont boy continued to pick them up and hurl them to first. He handled six chances without the semblance of an error.

Hooper and Lewis, the World Series Twins, were in the limelight today. These two players go along throughout the season hitting around .270, and when the world's series comes around they are the men who come through in a pinch. With the help of Janvrin and Shorten today these boys

Loan Fund Commissioners In Meeting Today Refuse to Delay Bidding

ATTORNEYS FOR MARSTON CAMPBELL FILE LETTERS

Kirchoff Reports That Lord-Young Roller is Sent to Repair Shop

Turning down the request of the governor to delay action in the Hillebrand Glen project, the Oahu loan fund commissioners in meeting today voted to call for bids on the plans and specifications submitted to them some days since by James T. Taylor and Fred Kirchoff, engineers.

Commissioners who voted today were Mayor Lane, E. G. Duisenberg and A. D. Castro. Lester Petrie, who yesterday stated his belief that Nuuuanui reservoir is suitable as a storage base of diverted water from Hillebrand, was not present at the meeting. The vote came at 12:04 o'clock and at the end of a comparatively short meeting.

When the vote had been taken the commissioners, headed by Chairman Charles R. Forbes, who had a few moments before reminded those present that it would not be a mistake to wait on the matter, placed their signatures to the plans.

Castro Moves to Call

Commissioner Castro made the motion which brought about the vote. He said he believed it was the duty of the commission to approve the plans and call for bids.

"I should like to state," said the chairman before calling for a vote, "that the commission is the agent for disbursing this money, but that it is up to the city and county to pay it back in time. If this is a good investment I do not hesitate to put my name to it. On the other hand, there can be no mistake in studying it carefully from all sides. I regret that Mr. Petrie is not here. I regret that Mr. Petrie is not here."

"You heard the governor yesterday."

MAD KING OF BAVARIA IS DEAD

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 12.—News has been received here that the mad ex-king of Bavaria, Otto, who has been insane since 1875, has died at Fuensterried castle, near Munich. The news comes by way of Copenhagen. Louis III, king of Bavaria, born January 7, 1845, succeeded his cousin, Otto, who, after having been nominal king since Louis II's death in 1886, was declared incapable of occupying the throne in October, 1913. It was necessary to alter the constitution to bring about the succession. The royal house of Bavaria descends from the Counts of Wittelsbach, who flourished in the 12th century, one of whom was elevated to the rank of elector; a later one was made king by Napoleon I.

IS CAUGHT RIFLING Y. M. LOCKERS

On suspicion of rifling the pockets of clothes in the Y. M. C. A. gymnasium locker room, a man named McCrea, whose initials are not known to the police and who came to Honolulu recently to teach school, has been arrested by the police and will be arraigned in the police court Friday morning. McCrea was apprehended by W. H. Hutton, secretary to Detective Chief Arthur McDuffie, who detailed Hutton on the case following several complaints from the Y. M. C. SEEK TO CITE G. E. MARSHALL FOR CONTEMPT

A motion for an order to show cause why George E. Marshall should not be punished for contempt of court was filed in circuit court this afternoon by the American Surety Co. of New York. The company alleges that Marshall refused to obey an order of court of October 4 directing him to assign and transfer to G. S. Curry, receiver, his claims against the U. S. government for work done under his contract for the completion of the Hilo breakwater.

Judge Sanford set the motion for hearing at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, providing that E. C. Peters, attorney for Marshall, is served with copies. He refused, however, to grant the motion, ex parte. The surety company has filed an exception to Judge Sanford's refusal.

CASE OF DR. LI IS BELIEVED TO BE BASIS OF PROBE

Iwilei Inmates and Richard Millard Summoned Before Grand Jury Today

An investigation of the case of Dr. K. P. Li, a local Chinese physician charged with violating the Harrison narcotic act, is believed to have been made today by the federal grand jury. Several persons who testified at the commissioners' hearing of the case were summoned before the inquisitors this morning.

Among the witnesses summoned were Dr. C. B. Cooper and Dr. W. C. Hobdy; Lena Carr and Mazie Crystal, inmates of Iwilei; Richard Millard and Tom Kai.

The Doctor Li case was brought to the attention of federal authorities after several weeks of investigation by the internal revenue officers. The revenue officers alleged in the complaint that Doctor Li was dispensing a so-called "rational cure" for the opium habit and that in other ways he had violated the narcotic act.

Millard, in his testimony before the commissioner, said that he was addicted to the opium habit and that he had secured a bottle of Doctor Li's so-called "cure." The witness added that he could let the pipe alone while he was taking the medicine but that, when the medicine was gone, the desire for opium returned.

A partial report from the grand jury, expected at noon today, was not forthcoming. It is understood that the inquisitors will make a partial report at about noon tomorrow. About 15 cases have been investigated to date, it is reported.

DEADLOCK STILL HOLDS BETWEEN STRIKE FORCES

Strikebreaking Camp Reopens; Hawaiians Walk Out After Getting Fine Breakfast

Considerable excitement prevails at the entrance to Pier 16 late this afternoon as the result of the attempts of union pickets, placed on guard by the striking stevedores, to prevent non-union men from entering the pier to go to work. Up to press time several non-union men had been restrained from entering the pier.

With 300 more union men walking out at 8:30 this morning, and the strike-breaking camp on Pier 16 in full operation again after having been discontinued only 24 hours, striking union stevedores and employers are deadlocked today. There seems no prospect of any settlement at this time.

All the trouble is over the question of the employment of union Japanese stevedores by McCabe, Hamilton & Renny. The stevedoring firm is standing pat, holding that it will employ whoever it sees fit regardless of the union and will not be dictated to by the union strikers. The union men

Broken Rail a Mystery; G.O.P. Hit By Wilson

President Declares Attack on Democrats as "Sectional Party" is Unpatriotic; "Must Draw America Together"

(Associated Press by Federal Wireless)

LOUISA, Kentucky, Oct. 12.—The special train in which Candidate Charles E. Hughes was traveling through Kentucky narrowly missed being wrecked when section men discovered a broken rail just a few moments before the flying special was due. The train was promptly flagged and stopped, near Paintsville. Railroad officials after examining the broken rail declared that the break was caused by a blow but could give no explanation of the deed.

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., Oct. 12.—In a ringing speech here today the president replied to Republican charges that the Democratic party is a sectional party, representing the south, and that Congress is dominated by the south. Mr. Wilson asserted that no man who brings up such an issue is fit to have the confidence of America.

"He shows himself provincial," he said. "That is the depth of anti-patriotism." He did not mention Hughes, saying that he had not wanted to discuss politics but could not help referring to such a question. "Our chief object should be to draw America together, to nationalize it," he said. "After the war we must be ready with united force and with a single object."

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12.—U. S. Consul Payne of St. Thomas, Danish West Indies, cabled to the state department today estimating that the cyclone has done $2,000,000 damage in this part of the West Indies and that two-thirds of the natives need food and shelter.

GERMAN OFFICIAL CABLEGRAMS

GERMAN HEADQUARTERS, Oct. 10.—On the Somme front yesterday and last night the enemy launched strong attacks on a large front between Ancre and the Somme, but all were unsuccessful. Other assaults were also frustrated.

On both sides of the Meuse today there were likely artillery exchange and mine-throwing duels.

On the east front, Prince Leopold's army: On the Stockhom we threw the Russians out of advanced positions and repulsed counter attacks. West of Luck there was no infantry activity. German detachments stormed with small losses the village of Sinbatov, west of Narayovka, and captured four officers, 200 men and several machine guns. In the Carpathians continuous Russian counter attacks failed before us.

In the Transylvanian war theater, east front: Everywhere we forged ahead. We forced several passes and were victorious in fighting at Kronstadt, pressing the defeated Rumanians. In three days' battle at Kronstadt we brought in 575 prisoners, 25 cannon and 13 heavy cannon, with much ammunition, carriages and other equipment. We also captured two locomotives and over 800 railroad cars loaded with victuals. The enemy suffered heavy losses.

West of Vulkan Pass we reconquered some heights.

On Mackensen's front: The situation is unchanged. On the Macedonian front the enemy continued the attack against the Bulgarian troops in Coerna road and Florina-Monastir line, the enemy obtaining small advantages, but everywhere else repulsed.

GERMAN HEADQUARTERS, Oct. 11.—On Duke Albrecht's front and on the Artois front British patrols were again active today. On the battlefield north of the Somme there was a strong artillery fire which extended northward far beyond Ancre, followed that evening and night by numerous separate attacks, several times repeated with forces from Morval and Bouchavesnes. Southwest of Salley the enemy obtained a footing on a narrow front in our first line but were repulsed by fire in hand to hand fighting on the rest of the front.

Northeast of Thiepval there was a combat about a small point, d'Appul.

ENTIRE DESTROYER FORCE AND LIGHT CRUISERS AND AUXILIARIES TO BE EMPLOYED IF DIVER RAIDS CONTINUE—GERMANS DEFEATING RUMANIANS ALONG WHOLE OF TRANSYLVANIA FRONT

(Associated Press Service by Federal Wireless)

THE HAGUE, Holland, Oct. 12.—Minister of Foreign Affairs London declared today: "I cannot believe the sinking of the Dutch steamer Bloemerdijk off Nantucket by a German submarine will be upheld by Germany." He said he believed the act was committed by a misinterpretation of orders by a hot-headed submarine commander. "I am sure Germany will disavow the act and tender reparation," he said.

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 12.—Members of the Reichstag who have been considering in committee the question of submarine warfare, and the extent to which it shall be pushed, have split apart.

In the Reichstag session today Major Bassermann, leader of the National Liberal wing, read a report from the budget committee stating that the committee has been unable to reach a decision on the submarine question and referred it back to the house.

The report said, however, that the committee had voted 24 to 4 against open discussion of the issue.

The issue involved is told in a despatch last month from London, as follows:

LONDON.—According to a Berne, Switzerland, despatch to the Wireless Press, German Chancellor von Bethmann-Hollweg, upon being asked at the August meeting of the Federal Council why he had yielded to the demands of the United States regarding the unrestricted torpedoing of ships on the high seas, replied emphatically that the value of the submarine was exaggerated by the adherents of wholesale torpedoing. The chancellor said insistence on an unrestricted submarine warfare would cause war between Germany and the United States, and that the results of unlimited torpedoing would not justify such a policy.

U. S. Navy Establishing Coast Patrol

WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 12.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels has completed a definite plan for the establishment of a naval patrol along the Atlantic coast, if the German submarine campaign against commerce continues.

The menace to neutrality of the submarines operating on the coast and the necessity for seeing that they do not work inside the three-mile limit are the moving cause for Daniels' plan. Under this the entire destroyer force of the navy, and the available light cruisers, assisting, will form the backbone of the patrol fleet, with auxiliaries also employed.

Teutons Winning Fight in Transylvania

BERLIN, Germany, Oct. 12.—The Teuton forces operating in Transylvania have inflicted a series of defeats on the Rumanians who came through the Alpine passes and struck toward Hungary.

The Teutons are now pursuing the Rumanians on the whole eastern Transylvanian front. The second Rumanian army has been driven back into its frontier positions.

Steamers at New York; Fear to Go Out

NEW YORK, N. Y., Oct. 12.—Eight steamers flying the flag of one of the Entente Powers are tied up here, awaiting advice as to whether it is safe to sail, in view of last Sunday's submarine raids.

No further information has been received concerning the U-53 and the other submarines reported to be operating with this craft.

Admiral Gleeves, commanding the destroyer flotilla which has been making a search of the sea off the Nantucket for missing vessels or passengers and crews possibly afloat in life-boats, said today that he personally does not believe that either a steamer Kingston or Kingstonian has been sunk. Earlier reports had it that a steamer by one of these names has been torpedoed and that the crew of about 50 had taken to boats. The destroyers have found no evidence that any such ship was submerged.

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 12.—A despatch from Christiania says that the Norwegian steamer Birk has been sunk in the war-zone.

Second Greek Government Established

LONDON, Eng., Oct. 12.—The revolt against the Constantine government is spreading rapidly and taking much more permanent form than expected, according to a despatch through Benter's from Saloniki. News comes today that M. Zimbrakatis has been appointed minister of war of the provisional government. The seat of this government is believed to be at Mytilene, where the ministers are organizing their followers.

Reports indicate that the Greek authorities have yielded to the emphatic demands of the Entente Powers for turning over virtually the entire Greek navy; either dismantling or surrendering the forts along the coast.

It is reported that the Entente demands also include the surrender of control of all railroads, mail and telegraph facilities.

not yet finished. South of the Somme after several days' preparation, the fire of the French succeeded in penetrating into the Bon-d'Yverdonville section and our troops were pushed back upon a prepared line. Today our flyers shot down four hostile aeroplanes behind the enemy's front and four behind our lines.

Southeast of Rheims a German reconnoitering raid penetrated into the third French trench and brought in prisoners. In the Meuse sector the fire activity is still increasing, especially east of the river. On the Thiaumont-Fleurbaey lines there were some hand grenade combats. Each of Fleurbaey a French advance was repulsed.

Eastern arena: Little news except in the Transylvanian region, where the enemy still opposes stubborn resistance in Maros valley. In Georgia valley and northwest of Pasaio the enemy again gave way. In the Alt valley the defeated enemy is being pursued. The pursuit of the second army, defeated near Kronstadt, continues.

No events on von Mackensen's front or along the Danube and Dobruja.

Our air squadrons successfully bombarded troops moving near Constanta, Rumania. On the Magdolna front enemy attacks were unsuccessful. Hostile advances on the Carina and west of the Vardar river were fruitless.
